State Fox Hunt at Crab Orchard.

MIDDLEBURG.

G. S. Durham is quite ill. Born to the wife of C. C. Lauman, a daughter. Mother and babe doing well. A school election will be held at the College Saturday next to elect a trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Trustee Jones.

G. R. Jeter, besides being at the head of a dozen or more enterprises, has gone into the spoke business. He will pay best prices for spokes delivered to him at the burg.

Even late corn is now sufficiently matured that little apprehension is felt for "Old Crimp." Sorghum making is in full blast. Irish potatoes are very light and hardly worth the digging.

M. W. Jones, the people's candidate for judge, is making a clean and honorable fight and is gaining ground daily. He has scared the captain up, who by the way, takes his rounds daily. So far mudslinging and hillbillygate have been eliminated from the campaign, each of them making the race on their merits, in which case the people should not be slow to decide.

James W. Short and Miss Lulu Fredric were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at Liberty Wednesday, Judge Tillord officiating. The bride is 18 years of age, pretty and very popular with her host of friends. The groom is about 30 years of age and one of the most popular and prominent young men in this section. He will conduct a livery stable at Moreland.

The protracted meeting which has been going on at the Baptist church, continues, and with a good attendance and marked order. The Christian people in general are lending their aid, which alone insures success. There have been a number of conversions to date. These series of meetings which are being conducted by Revs. Slumme and Ferrell, will probably continue throughout the week.

Jordon McWhorter lays claim to the most intelligent horse in town, and we know no reason why he is not justly entitled to the claim. For some weeks past Mr. Keeney's ducks have been trespassing on the premises of the former gentleman and at evening would come near the gate to roost. Every evening the faithful old horse will take hold of the ducks one by one and tenderly lift them over the fence.

John Paul, who has been living in the Cowan property, has moved into the Moran property on Race Street. M. S. McMullin, of Yosemite, will move into the house vacated by Mr. Paul. Richard McDaniel, who has been living near Burnside, has moved into the Coffey house near the Lagoon. Arthur Short has moved near Calvary. Rev. Josh Taylor, of Pulaski, will move to Middleburg early next month.

Rev. Earle D. Simms lectured to the school Friday morning, the subject being "China and Confucianism." Bro. Simms is a good lecturer and a most forcible speaker and was attentively listened to. He promised the smaller children to return one day next week when he will talk to them on geography. As he has seen most of the world and came in contact with its various people, a treat as a consequence may be expected.

The Fourteenth Regulars, who stood guard around the dying president at Buffalo were the men who followed Licum to the death trap, and stood steady under a hall of lead, that their fellow soldiers might win on the other side of the Chinese fort. Are we not too apt to look upon the regular as a machine only? It was the above organization that young Russell Elliott, of this county, belonged to, and who lost his life on the Pekin walls. There are a score or more of boys from Casey, Lincoln and Pulaski counties in the 14th, which is held by many army men to be the "crack" of the service.

Mrs. W. J. Godhay is visiting relatives at Esto and Russell Springs. Joe Henderson, a veteran of the Phillipine Insurrection, left Tuesday for Rockwood, Tenn., where he will be absent several weeks. Messrs. Jason Wesley and Surgeon Sympon returned from Lancaster Friday, where they visited relatives. Dr. Haney is attending the Inter-State Fair, at Louisville. Wesley Hogue, of High Bridge, is visiting his parents at this place. Miss Bettie Tillord, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Judge Tillord, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Miss Mary Russell returned Friday from Lincoln county, where she has been visiting relatives. Mr. Ivy Hopper, of Somerset, lately returned from Kansas, where he had a siege of the small pox, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

C. C. The formation of the club will give renewed interest to chasing foxes with beagles, and it is proposed that in the spring there will be held trials followed by semi-annual meetings of the club for field trials, when all owners of beagles will be invited to participate.

In anæmia and most women's ailments the digestion is weak, the making of color, flesh and strength out of food is imperfect so that the patient is weak, wan, nervous and dyspeptic. This condition can be corrected by taking a course of HERBINE. Price 50c. For sale at Penny's Drug Store.

Many rules for the pronunciation of the name of the president's assassin are going the rounds. The final pronunciation will be "d-e-a-d."—Commoner.

Corn huskers' sprained wrists, barbed wire cuts, burns, bruises, severe lacerations and external injuries of any kind are promptly and happily cured by applying BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Price 25c and 50c. For sale at Penny's.

For a bad taste in the mouth take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Grant Roberts is slated to succeed S. B. Holmes as postmaster of Frankfort.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

J. H. Baughman got 1,100 bushels of millet off of 50 acres of land.

S. T. Harris bought of Samuel Duderar six short three-year-old cattle at $50.

David Rankin, of Wayne, bought 26 mule colts in Garrard at an average of $10.

Cresceus failed to lower his record at Philadelphia. He made the mile in 2:04.

Jesse Fox bought of H. S. Brannon, of Rockcastle, nine mules for $10.

Good seed wheat, Red Fultz, for sale. See sample at Carson & Pence's. W. Y. Currey, Hubbie 4t.

W. L. Caldwell, of Boyle, took seven premiums on jack stock at the Louisville fair last week.

L. W. Preston's celebrated trotting stallion, Smith Bow Bell, died at Horse Cave of colic.

A. E. Hundley, of Boyle, sold a colt by Top Gallant at the Fasig-Tipton sale in New York for $900.

Edith W. broke the record for pacing mares at Cincinnati by going three heats in 2:05, 2:05 and 2:05.

Attend R. H. and W. A. Pettus' sale near Gilberts Creek Thursday next. See advertisement elsewhere.

W. D. Moore has bought the Cozatt farm on the Perryville pike, near Danville, for $12,000, says the News.

Dick Cobb, Jr., sold to J. F. Coot & Co., of Lexington, two shorthorn bulls, subject to register. Also a lot of young mules. J. T. Hackley, Danville, Ky.

James L. Yantis, of the West End, will have a sale on the 30th of this month. Watch these columns for his advertisement.

C. E. Miller, of Rochester, Ill., bought in this and Garrard counties 420,000 to 1,000-pound cattle at 4c. They will be shipped about the middle of November.

Came to my place about the 10th a black sow and harrow, weight about 150 pounds. Owner can have same by proving them and by paying for their keep and this notice. W. H. Duderar, Rowland.

Ben Saunders, of Mercer, bought of Charles Robinson, 500 barrels of corn for delivery April 1, 1902, at $1. John Curd sold his corn in the field at $2.50. Sam Forsythe bought 19 good feeding cattle at 4c.

Lincoln King, raised by W. H. Murphy, of this county, was sold by W. W. Galloway, of McKinney, Texas, to Arthur Massie for $1,000. Lincoln King is a saddle stallion and is an excellent specimen of the equine family. Mr. Murphy still owns his dam and Lincoln King is the third one of her offspring to sell for as much as $1,000.

The race for the $1,000 Tennessee Stake, on the first day of the big Lexington trot, promises to be one of the best races of the great meeting. In it are the unbeaten Dan Patch, 2:04; Sir Alcantara, 2:05; Gazette, 2:06; Geer's great pacer, Shadow Chimes, 2:06; The Admiral, 2:07; Major Muscovite, 2:07; Will Leyburn, 2:07; and other high class race horses. The meeting runs from Oct. 8 to 18. Half fare on all railroads.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Danville Baptists have purchased a $2,500 organ.

Rev. J. B. Crouch's meeting at the Baptist church at Brumfield resulted in eight additions to that church.

The next meeting of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist church will be held in the Trinity Methodist church in Louisville.

Andrew Carnegie bought 350 organs for churches in Scotland, the aggregate cost of the instruments being nearly a million dollars.

A motion to reduce the number of presiding elder districts in the Methodist Church, South, was defeated at the convention in Bowling Green.

Rev. W. S. Grinstead will preach his last sermon for this conference year at the Methodist church here next Sunday. He will leave Tuesday to attend conference, which meets at Shelbyville. Bro. Grinstead is an excellent divine and we hope to have him with us another year.—Spencer Courier.

NOTHING LIKE OIL.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

For a bad taste in the mouth take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Grant Roberts is slated to succeed S. B. Holmes as postmaster of Frankfort.

LANCASTER.

Rev. A. R. Moore, who has been away on a vacation, returned Saturday night and filled his pulpit Sunday morning and evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Christian church, will meet on next Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Waldeon on Danville street.

John Farra, the greatest hustler in Lancaster, was heard to say the other day, "We are sure of the railroad."

We trust that Mr. Farra is right on this point, and he is usually right, too.

FOR RENT.—In Lancaster, a house of 10 rooms, garden and stable. Centrally located and well suited for a boarding house. For reference, John M. Ormond, 8th and Jefferson Streets, Waco, Texas.

The 30-odd gentlemen, who went over to Louisville to attend the fair last week, came back in high spirits. They say that whatever we can do for Louisville, we should do and Louisville will do all she can for us. What is to her interest, is to our interest, and what helps her, helps us.

Miss Gene Dulap, of Louisville, who has been the charming guest of Misses Bertha and Mary Burnsides, on Danville Avenue, left Saturday for her home. Mrs. Brooks and daughter, Miss Mollie, were with Mrs. A. H. Bastil during the convention. Dr. W. S. Beazley has been quite sick. Among those who came over from Stanford to attend the C. W. B. M. convention were: Mesdames Alice Cloyd and Eliza Blain; Misses Etta Belle Cloyd, Ella May Saunders, Virginia Warren, Lucille Cooper, Stella McClary, Ailie and Susan VanArdale and Mr. E. T. Beazley.

The people of our town were very agreeably surprised on Thursday evening when the Southern Military Band of Crab Orchard came over and gave us some excellent music. The band is composed of 18 men and boys of Crab Orchard, who certainly know what good music is. Prof. Riggs, who is director, when asked about the organization of the band, said: "The Southern Military Band of Crab Orchard, Ky., was organized Dec. 1, 1900, and incorporated June 28, 1901, with 18 members.

Their organization is like that of a National Bank, i.e., each member owns a share. There are 20 shares at present, but the capital stock will be increased soon to $1,000."

The district convention of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, comprising Lincoln, Garrard, Rockcastle and Madison counties, convened at the Christian church here Thursday morning.

An interesting program was carried out during the morning hours and then an excellent dinner was served.

The afternoon session was taken up by addresses by different members of the association. At the evening session, Mrs. Harris, of Lexington, who is president, delivered an address, which was very interesting. The music was fine and the program was carried out in a way that was a credit to those taking part.

This was one of the most interesting meetings ever held by the society and the members of the Lancaster Auxiliary should feel very proud of their success, and should be ready to again take up their work, much encouraged.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased the bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again, last summer, I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Isaac Pearson, who was appointed trustee by Mercer county for the railroad bonds issued by that county to aid in the construction of the Louisville Southern, was awarded $4,000 in the Boyle circuit court for services as trustee, expenses while acting as such and lawyers' fees. Pearson sued for $9,000. The case was brought to Danville on a change of venue.

There are thousands of people suffering untold torture from piles, because of the popular impression that they cannot be cured. TABLET'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT will cure them and the patient will remain cured. Price 50c in bottles; tubes 75c. For sale at Penny's.

The Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL is authority for the statement that the republicans of Lincoln county are taking an oath not to sell out in November. By gosh! They're mighty tight got the varmint breed!—Glasgow Times.

THE brief space of time intervening the assault upon the life of President McKinley and the conviction of his assassin has proven a prolific theme of general comment throughout the country. Metropolitan newspapers have deemed both the fact of the speedy trial and the expressed approbation of it of sufficient importance to justify the collection and reproduction of all accessible commentaries. The majority of these find in the simple fact of a speedy trial an evidence of an awakened sense of public duty in the judiciary as well as in the juries. Without all discounting this view, and freely concurring in the implied accusation that both judges and jurors often need a stimulus to more determined efforts to prevent crime by speedier trials and the infliction of more adequate punishments, it would seem that a better lesson is taught by the quick conviction of Czolgosz than the one which lies so plainly on the surface. It is a lesson which the people should learn for themselves and faithfully endeavor to put in practice. They should become pupils as well as teachers. It is quite an easy task, as it is quite an old practice, to harangue courts and juries about their duties to the public. This has been done so long and so repeatedly that the wonder is that these tribunals have not been made callous by the perfunctory chastisement. But let us look a little further than this. Why is it that the assassin of the president is sentenced to execution within a few weeks only after the commission of his act? It is not because the act was witnessed by a cloud of witnesses whose concurring evidence would overwhelmingly establish the fact of the shooting. Thousands of crimes have been committed in this country where the act done is as easily susceptible of absolute proof. Primarily and chiefly, it is because the entire country was aroused to the highest point of disapprobation of the deed. In other words and in plainer speech, public sentiment was against it. Public sentiment unmistakably condemned it. So, therefore, it must be open to shallow observation that if the people desire speedy trials and sure convictions where crimes have been committed, they should arouse themselves, not simply their servants. They should awaken their own consciences, not simply prick the consciences of public officials. Whenever the people are aroused to the great danger to the country from assassinations, thefts in high places, perjuries to rob the public treasury, combinations to defraud individuals and the public alike—in other words when public sentiment against such high crimes shall assume such definite shape as that the servants of the people can not fail to note it, then may we expect the speedy trial and certain conviction.

Public officials simply reflect the views and sentiments and desires of the public at large. If the people themselves are indifferent to the baneful effects of crimes against person and property, it is against reason to expect efficient service from the servant in the administration of criminal laws. If there were in the United States a large political party—respectable only in numbers—which approved the assassination of the president, Czolgosz would yet be unconvicted. If, perchance, he might have escaped immediate capture, he could have found an asylum among those partisans. But being captured, this same congregation of partisans would have employed counsel for his defense, jurors would have been challenged to the uttermost limit of the law, the plea of insanity would have been interposed, possibly the assassin would have been directed to fall down in a simulated fit, flowers and delicates would have been sent to him in jail, the judge of the court would have been accused of being an uncircumcised barbarian for no suspending the trial, and among his friends he would have been canonized as a martyr to civil liberty.

But happily for the country, beautifully to the credit of its moral sense, there is no considerable body of people in this country which approves, either openly or secretly, the assassination of the president. Public sentiment denounces the act and condemns the actor. It is rather a breezy and faulty figure of speech, but if the people will inoculate themselves with a righteous indignation against all kinds of high crimes—assassinations, public executions, treasury thefts and raids on public money—we will have a better service in our courts, by our juries, and the hangman will have his inning.

THE Monticello Record has been changed to the Monticello Courier by its new owners, Messrs. White & Hancock. The paper has also been increased to a six-column folio. At its masthead appears the republican county ticket and we presume its politics has also been changed, to the paper's shame be it said.

HON. W. J. BRYAN makes this very sensible suggestion in his Commemoration: After Czolgosz is condemned and executed (the sooner the better) it might be proper to ask the governor of Indiana to surrender the man who is under indictment for aiding in the assassination of Gov. Goebel.

THE last issue of the Danville News was good enough to be preserved for all time to come. The questions it asked the Advocate, on its return to the democratic party, were deadening and we opine Mr. Woolfolk will have a hard time answering them.

THE Georgetown Times has put in a 34x45 Cottrell & Babcock stop cylinder press, which is said to be a daisy. It weighs 24,000 pounds and is especially adapted to book work and the printing of half tone cuts.

THE Louisville Post, which ought to be authority on the subject, says that Gov. Durbin will not honor the requisitions for Taylor and Finley.

POLITICAL.

Booker T. Washington was a guest of President Roosevelt at the White House.

Franklin Murphy was nominated for governor by the New Jersey republican convention.

The next Congress will be called upon to change the name of the Philippines Islands to McKinley Islands.

County Clerk Claude Chinn, of Fayette, has announced his candidacy for re-election, subject to the republican convention.

The four democratic candidates for United States Senator have joined in an agreement to declare off the six debates which they had arranged.

The Cook County Democratic Marching Club, of Chicago, 300 strong, is coming to Louisville and will spend two days cheering for Grainger for mayor.

Clark county republicans nominated M. P. Lowry, a Christian preacher, for representative, and E. W. Reeves for county judge. They made no further nominations.

Friends of Charles C. Spalding, of Lebanon, are urging him to run for Congress. He has served four terms in the Legislature and is chairman of the Marion county democratic committee.

Thos. Rothwell, aged 94, died at his home in Menefee county. Rothwell was a life-long democrat, and when Andrew Jackson ran for the presidency, he walked from Pennsylvania, where he was working, to vote for Jackson.

Having had our loyal newspaper in New York, Richard Croker has decided to keep the Tammany Hall ticket before the public by advertising in theater programs, on dead walls and in the street cars and elevated trains.

In the Franklin circuit court the suit of several former republican clerks in the State departments to recover salary for the time between the decision of the State Contest Board to the time the republican officials surrendered the offices was decided against the plaintiffs.

THIS AND THAT.

Ellen Turner was mortally wounded by unknown persons in Bell county.

Assassin Czolgosz has not yet expressed a desire for the attendance of a spiritual adviser.

The coal miners' strike in the Jefferson district has practically been settled on a compromise basis.

Near Callaway, in Bell county, Jos. Eley was killed and Jobe Gay perhaps fatally wounded in a fight.

Secretary Gage makes a statement showing that the revenues of the government are in excess of expenditures. Col. W. W. Baldwin, of Maysville, was seriously injured at Lexington by the falling of a scantling from a painter's scaffold.

It is conceded that Gov. Durbin will not honor the requisition for the return to Kentucky of fugitives Taylor and Finley. Senator Fairbanks is said to be pledged to guarantee immunity to Taylor.

MATRIMONIAL.

W. C. Yates and Miss Carrie Caldwell, of Adair, were married at the "bridal altar" in Mammoth Cave.

Thomas Logan, of Boyle, aged 21, and Miss Mandy Hall, just 18, were married at R. J. Hutchinson's last week.

Mrs. Lynn Pullman was granted a divorce at Chicago from young George M. Pullman and alimony was fixed at $1,000 a year.

News comes from a reliable source that Miss Gertrude Pennybacker, the beautiful daughter of Mrs. Bettie C. Pennybacker, of Kingsville, will be married the 23rd of this month to Dr. Allen, a rising young physician of Somerset. We extend congratulations in advance of the happy event.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Van Ryan, a liveryman, dropped dead at London while eating breakfast.

Miss Little Goff, of Pittsburg, was shot in the knee while trying to take a pistol from her son.

John Miller, aged 90, the oldest man in Mercer county, and probably in Central Kentucky, is dead.

Rev. R. R. Noel's meeting at the Silver Creek Baptist church resulted in 12 confessions, seven of which joined that church.

Harvey Long, aged 82, who ran away from his home at Richmond when 11 years old, and went to Joplin, Mo., has returned.

Lucian Woodward, colored, was arrested at Altamont charged with assaulting six-year-old Julia May Parrott, of London.

Ab Early, who took part in a fight near London, in which Edward Jones was killed, had his examining trial and was held under $5,000 bail.

A. L. Kirby, who was brought to Richmond from Fresno, Cal., charged with killing a man at Berea 12 years ago, was allowed bail in $2,500, which he gave.

William Underwood was arrested at London and released on $1,000 bond. He was one of the parties engaged in a fight Sept. 11, in which Ed Jones was killed and Ab Early badly wounded.

Thomas Brown, a 16 year old boy, who is in jail in London, on the charge of killing a woman in Laurel county, has made a confession in which he claims that his brother-in-law induced him to commit the crime.

At the democratic primary held to nominate candidates for the city council of Danville the following were named. Second ward, H. E. Woolfolk, E. R. Dillehay; third ward, C. Terbune, O. J. Thurmond; fifth ward, Joe Engleman, B. F. Crane; sixth ward, Dr. J. C. Bogie, E. H. Fox.

OTTENHEIM.

Supt. Garland Singleton visited the Ottenthal school last week.

Rev. Wm Steehow and wife remove this week to their home at Dundee, O. Wm. Huser and family will locate in Lebanon, where Mr. Huser will embark in the grocery business.

Frederick Claudius, of Williamsport, Pa., is stopping at Dr. A. Petzold's and is in quest of a wife and then a home.

Wm. Landgraf will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Steehow. Miss Georgia Lewis and sister, of Stanford, were guests of M. Millen and family.

Twenty people greeted Hon. W. B. Cochran at the school house Saturday night and he gave them the usual amount of prosperity bubbles and Goebel hash.

Max Lacowitz has a peach orchard nine years old. It bore no peaches until this year. His son, Ernest, has disposed of $75 worth in Danville, Stanford and other places.

Casper Apt's boy, aged three years, has been ill with scarlet rash and diphtheria. Mrs. Huffman and family came in from Cincinnati and will occupy her home west of town.

Not much frost is on the pumpkin nor fodder in the shock, but elder and wine are on tap and the fall festivals are in full blast and large crowds gather somewhere every Sunday afternoon and sample the new vintage.

KINGSVILLE.

The sick are all convalescing, the doctors tell us.

S. C. Carter, of Stanford, will arrive Saturday to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Peairs.

The democrats are all right over here, as they always are, and the republicans realize their defeat in advance.

Rev. Dr. Allen, of Danville, held services at the Christian church Sunday morning and will return the second Sunday in October to commence a protracted meeting.

Miss Elizabeth McFarland is the attractive guest of her cousin, Miss Gertrude Pennybacker. Rumor is that a double wedding will occur at Hotel Pennybacker on the 23rd. Dr. Allen, of Somerset, was the guest of Miss Gertrude Pennybacker Sunday last. Miss Elsie B. Carey has returned from an extended visit to relatives at Lebanon Junction. Mrs. Jesse Hukel and baby and Miss Minnie Leach, of Lexington, are the guests of relatives here. Mrs. Dr. J. W. Acton has returned from a visit to relatives in Pulaski. John Howe, our popular night operator, is visiting relatives in Cincinnati and Chicago. Harry Griffin, of Seience Hill, is his substitute. G. A. Walter has returned from Cincinnati, where he bought a fine line of new goods. Mrs. Will Pearls and two children, of Detroit, are expected this week to visit relatives.

SALE.—W. H. Wearen has bought of E. T. Beazley his pretty home on East Main Street, for $2,000.

Dog thieves are getting in their work in Boyle, says the News. We hope they will make Lincoln visit.

COL. J. P. CHANDLER will sell a nice phaeton and pony at R. H. and W. A. Petrus' sale near Gilberts Creek Thursday.

THE Misses Straus will have a representative at Livingston today, Tuesday, with a full assortment of trimmed hats and millinery goods.

J. A. ESTES has embarked in the butcher business. He will deliver beef in Stanford on Tuesdays and Saturdays and mutton on Thursdays.

THE basket meeting held at the colored Baptist church Sunday was largely attended. The church cleared $88.95. Rev. J. W. Clark, of Nicholasville, did the preaching.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL has sold its gasoline engine to John B. Camenish, the dairyman, who will use it for cutting feed for his cows. There are several cone pulleys in the office which will be sold cheap.

"UNCLE BEN" ROBINSON, of Garrard, was here yesterday. In answer to our query, "how are the democrats getting on in Garrard?" he said: "We are in fine shape and will win easily and I know what I am talking about."

COOLEY.—Lenna Jane, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooke, died Saturday morning of scarlet fever after a seven days' illness and was buried at Mt. Moriah church. Little Leona was an unusually bright child.

THE Danville News says that the Lincoln jury "fell down" on the Boyle people in its verdict in the Montgomery case. We think ourselves that the Negro should have been hung, but 12 monstrous good men thought a life sentence was sufficient and as they heard the testimony and we did not we are fully satisfied with their judgment.

AFFIRMED.—The court of appeals affirmed the decision of Judge M. C. Sawyer in the case of Robert Wilson and William Clymer, who got 15 and 10 years, respectively, in the Lincoln circuit court. They were charged with raping Miss Sallie Crabtree. Hon. R. C. Warren & Son and J. Mort Rothwell represented Wilson and Clymer in the court of appeals and they will ask a rehearing.

CONFESSION.—Capt. W. W. Penn, Junction City's good marshal, arrested the scamps who stole Mrs. Mary Vestach's trunk at that place and they are now in the Danville jail. They have confessed to the theft and will as certainly go "over the road" as they will be tried. All are colored and their names are Clarence Burton, Geo. Jack, of Lebanon, and Jerry Murrill, of Columbia. Capt. Penn found a portion of the clothing stolen.

MR. JAMES B. OWENS, of this place, has been secured as mine host of the new hotel at Williamsburg and will open it to the public Dec. 1. Mr. Owens is a born hotel man and he and Mrs. Owens will make it a popular hotel and should do well. Williamsburg has long needed a good hotel and we are sure the town will have one now. The hotel building is a 30-room brick structure, modern in its make-up and is newly furnished throughout.

MINUTES.—Mr. E. B. Caldwell, Jr., who has been secretary for years and will be as long as he will serve, sends us the minutes of the Cumberland River Baptist Association, which was held with Flat Lick church, Pulaski county, the first week in September. This is about the 25th time we have printed these minutes and it has been through the kindness of Mr. Caldwell that we have secured the work. The I. J. has few better or more substantial friends than Mr. Caldwell.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.—Six percent penalty will be added to all city taxes not paid before Nov. 1, 1901. L. R. Hughes collector.

THE C. W. B. M. will meet in the lecture room of the Christian church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. All members are requested to attend as this will be the most important meeting since the organization of the auxiliary.

We have placed the name of Dick Farmer, of Stanford, upon our subscription list to remain without cost until he is elected jailer of Lincoln county as an evidence of appreciation of his faithfulness to his party.—Somerset Journal.

MISS KING and Miss Higgins, the Crab Orchard milliners, have just returned from the cities with a full line of the latest novelties in both millinery and dress-making. They will have their opening Friday next and cordially invite the public to examine their stock.

THE democrats of Rockcastle met at Mt. Vernon Saturday and decided to leave the matter of nominating candidates for county offices to the county committee, which will meet Thursday. We'll wager that Attorney R. L. Brown will be the nominee for county judge.

RICE.—Mr. Andrew J. Rice, one of the cleverest men in Garrard, died Saturday, aged 68. He was a fine old gentleman and a tried and true democrat. Howard, Virgil and W. R. Rice are three of his sons who survive, "Big Bill," as he was affectionately called, was a universally popular man and his death has caused much regret.

NEW OIL COMPANY.—A new oil company known as the Beaver Creek Oil & Gas Co., with a capital stock of $1,000 will be incorporated at once. The incorporators are Sheriff S. M. Owens, Judge W. M. Myers, George D. Weatherford and Dr. J. C. Barker. The lands leased are on Beaver Creek in Wayne county and are within a quarter of a mile of producing wells. The famous Sunbrook well is close by.

KING.—Mrs. Virginia King, who was badly burned by the explosion of a lamp at Lawrenceburg, in which her daughter, Mrs. Fannie R. Feland, lost her life, died Saturday evening and was buried in Buffalo cemetery Sunday afternoon in the presence of a large crowd. Mrs. King was the widow of the late Eld. S. H. King, and was one of the best women that ever lived in this county. She was 61 years old and had been a consistent member of the Christian church for many years. Her life was a beautiful one and such an excellent woman should die so horrible a death, seems strange indeed, but He moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform and the agonies Mrs. King suffered may yet redound to some good. A number of children, both married and single, are left to mourn the loss of a devoted and indulgent mother and to the hour of their bereavement they have the sympathy of all. Eld. Shouse, of Lexington, made a most appropriate and touching talk at the grave, after which all that was mortal of the lovely and godly woman and devoted mother was laid to rest by the side of her husband, who has slept the sleep that knows no waking nearly 20 years. The grave was literally covered with beautiful flowers.

DRY.—Bailey Drye, oldest son of Mrs. Priscilla Drye, of Hustonville, died at Hot Springs, Ark., Saturday, of consumption of the bowels and liver and will be buried in the Hustonville cemetery at 10 o'clock this morning after a short service at the grave by Elder B. J. Pinkerton. It was intended that the burial should take place yesterday afternoon, but the train bringing the remains did not arrive in time. Mr. Drye was a big hearted, clever man and made friends of all with whom he came in contact. He traveled a great deal and naturally smart, he amassed a great amount of information and was a most interesting gentleman. He adored mother, and the good Lord never made many better mothers than she is, is crushed with grief at the death of her oldest child and many a heart goes out to her this morning as she watches tender hands lay her beloved son to rest. May He who doeth all things well comfort her in her great sorrow and cause her to soon realize that her offspring is taken for some good and noble purpose. Much sympathy is also felt for the sister and brother who are left behind and God grant that they too may be comforted. A large number of friends met the remains at Moreland yesterday and followed them to Mr. W. L. Evans', where scores of sympathetic friends gathered to condole with the sorrowing ones.

THIRTY-TWO varieties of assorted sizes in cooking and heating stoves. Look at our line before you buy. Geo. H. Farris & Co.

BOYLE county republicans went through the silly operation of putting out the following ticket: For Judge, W. S. Lawwill; Sheriff, N. K. Tunis; Superintendent, W. C. Poynter; Assessor, I. W. Spier; Clerk, Sam Minor; Surveyor, Dr. A. B. Nelson; Jailer, Sam Westerfield; Representative, August Miller, of Junction City. The splendid ticket the democrats have ought to beat this crew hands down.

Happiness depends very much on the condition of the liver and kidneys. The ills of life make but little impression on those whose digestion is good. You can regulate your liver and kidneys with HERBISE and enjoy health and buoyancy of spirits. Price 50c. For sale at Penny's Drug Store.
